

Columbia Basin Watershed Network Society

Fall member meeting agenda (draft)

10:00 am – 4:00 pm PDT
 Saturday, November 17, 2018
 Prestige Lakeside Resort
 701 Lakeside Drive, Nelson

9:30 am	Registration & refreshments
10:00	Welcome - CBWN Board
10:05	Meeting agenda - CBWN Senior Manager
10:10	“Building readiness and influence for watershed governance: options and approaches - Presentation on the “Handbook for water champions” Watershed governance 101, competencies and opportunities, working with key partners, role of stewardship groups Rosie Sims (POLIS Project, bio) Natasha Overduin (Centre for Indigenous Resources, bio)
10:40	Facilitated full-group discussion Where does your watershed stewardship group fit into the picture?
11:00	Breakout groups Work through self-assessment, identify possible next steps and strategies
12:00	Free lunch!
1:00	Update from siwłk™ (Water for all - Our Responsibility) Kelowna Oct 2018 Environmental Flow Needs Conference: Science, Policy & Practice
1:15	CBWN/ Selkirk College Summer Mapping Updates: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Arrow Lakes Environment Stewardship Society: Box Lake Wetland Modelling for Communication ● Columbia Shuswap Invasives: Mapping the Bullfrog: Potential Routes of Entry ● Living Lakes Canada: Update of the Flathead River Biomonitoring
1:45	Watershed stories - member updates (10 minutes each) RDCK/ LLC Brilliant Headpond Stewardship Initiative LLC Columbia Basin Water Data Hub and Framework Elk River Alliance - water monitoring program
2:45	Break
3:00	Collaboration ‘Speed Dating’
3:45	CBWN wrap up Opportunities for involvement, training and networking ideas for 2019
4:00	Adjourn